

Dear Colleagues,

We are pleased to be sharing with you the latest Campus With A Conscience (CWAC) e-Bulletin. Thank you to those who have been continuously contributing to the sustainability efforts across Sunway College and Sunway University.

The latest bulletin covers the sustainability efforts of clubs & societies, schools and departments across Sunway University and Sunway College.

This month's edition leads with the successful Asean Education Cities Conference 2023, which saw an exchange of ideas on the making of vibrant education cities and how to work together towards developing new ways of educating the next generation of planetary health caretakers.

In addition, Professor Simon Guy from Lancaster University delivered the first-ever in person Campus With A Conscience Speaker Series after months of virtual lectures.

Thank you for taking your time to read through the CWAC eBulletin. Feel free to share with us all the efforts that you and your team are contributing back to the environment.

SUNWAY EDUCATION GROUP

Inspired to Shape Green Cities for Better Tomorrow

Sunway University hosted the Asean Education Cities Conference 2023 (AECC), which saw an exchange of ideas on the making of vibrant education cities and how to work together towards developing new ways of educating the next generation of planetary health caretakers.

The researchers, scholars, industry leaders and other stakeholders focused on the way cities function as spaces for education and also how educational institutions can support sustainable development through teaching, policy advising and public engagement.

Professor Simon Guy: Campus With A Conscience Speaker Series

After months of virtual lectures, we're excited to be back in the lecture hall today with Professor Simon Guy, Pro-Vice-Chancellor Global (Digital, International, Sustainability) at Lancaster University, for his lecture on "Sustainability and the Climate Emergency: Delivering on our Commitment".

Sunway University to Host the Secretariat of the Panel for a Global Public Health Convention

Sunway University is pleased to host the Secretariat of the Panel for a Global Public Health Convention. The Panel is an independent coalition of global leaders who are committed to strengthening the global public health architecture to prevent future pandemics. Panel members are ex-leaders and senior experts from all continents.

Sunway-MAPAN Sustainability Plenary Collaborated for a Sustainable Future

Sunway University and the Malaysia Association of Public Advocacy for Nature (MAPAN) are pleased to announce the first in a series of lectures, workshops, and seminars aimed at promoting sustainability in small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs). The collaborative effort between Sunway University and MAPAN reflects their shared commitment to promoting sustainable development in Malaysia.

Climate change is a pressing matter that affects the economy, markets, people, and society at large. It requires concrete and collaborative actions by researchers, practitioners, and the community to address its effects. The plenary aims to engage the research community, industry, and regulators, including prospective postgraduates, to deliberate on solutions to address environmental, social, and governance concerns, with a key focus on SMEs.
